

Trauma and Dissociation: Fundamentals of Assessment and Treatment

Presented by: Helen Hill, LISW-S & Cheri Kerr, PCC-S

OBJECTIVES:

Participants will learn

- historical and cultural aspects related to treatment of trauma related disorders
- how to utilize specific screening tools for dissociative disorders
- awareness of special considerations in therapy with trauma survivors
- beginning strategies for treatment of complex dissociative disorders

DATES OF THE FOUR-PART PRESENTATION:

Registration begins at 8:30 for each session

Located at 240 Parsons Avenue, 43215; Room 119C.
Please park in back and enter through the main entrance in the back.
There is an information desk directly in front, to provide directions

Friday
January 15, 2016
9AM-12:15 PM

Friday
February 5, 2016
9AM-12:15 PM

Friday,
March 4, 2016
9AM-12:15 PM

Friday
April 15, 2016
9AM-12:15 PM

Total Cost $200

Space is limited to 40 participants

Co-sponsored by:

COLUMBUS
PUBLIC HEALTH

Syntero is approved as a Continuing Professional Education provider of programs and adheres to the requirements of the State of Ohio Counselor, Social Worker and Marriage & Family Therapist Board (#RCS050605). A total of 12 clock hours CEUs for Counselor/Social Workers will be provided. All attendees MUST attend the entire series for their CEU's. It is a four-part series.

For questions regarding the content of the program, please contact Helen Hill 614.565.6048 or Cheri Kerr 614.563.8572.

Questions regarding registration or logistics, contact Kim Vance at kvance@syntero.org

Trauma and Dissociation: Fundamentals of Assessment and Treatment

Name

Agency Name

Phone

E-mail

Mail Payment/Registration to:

Trauma Training;
Syntero
1560 Fishinger Rd
Columbus, OH 43221

Please make checks payable to Syntero

Payment & Registration must be received by December 31, 2015